

The SGN Cloud Connect app secures communication and enables access to private cloud services, datacenters, and office locations around the globe.

To locate the SGN Cloud Connect, simply type 'SGN Connect' into the taskbar at the bottom of the computer screen.

To verify SGN Cloud is connected 'click' open on the SGN connect.

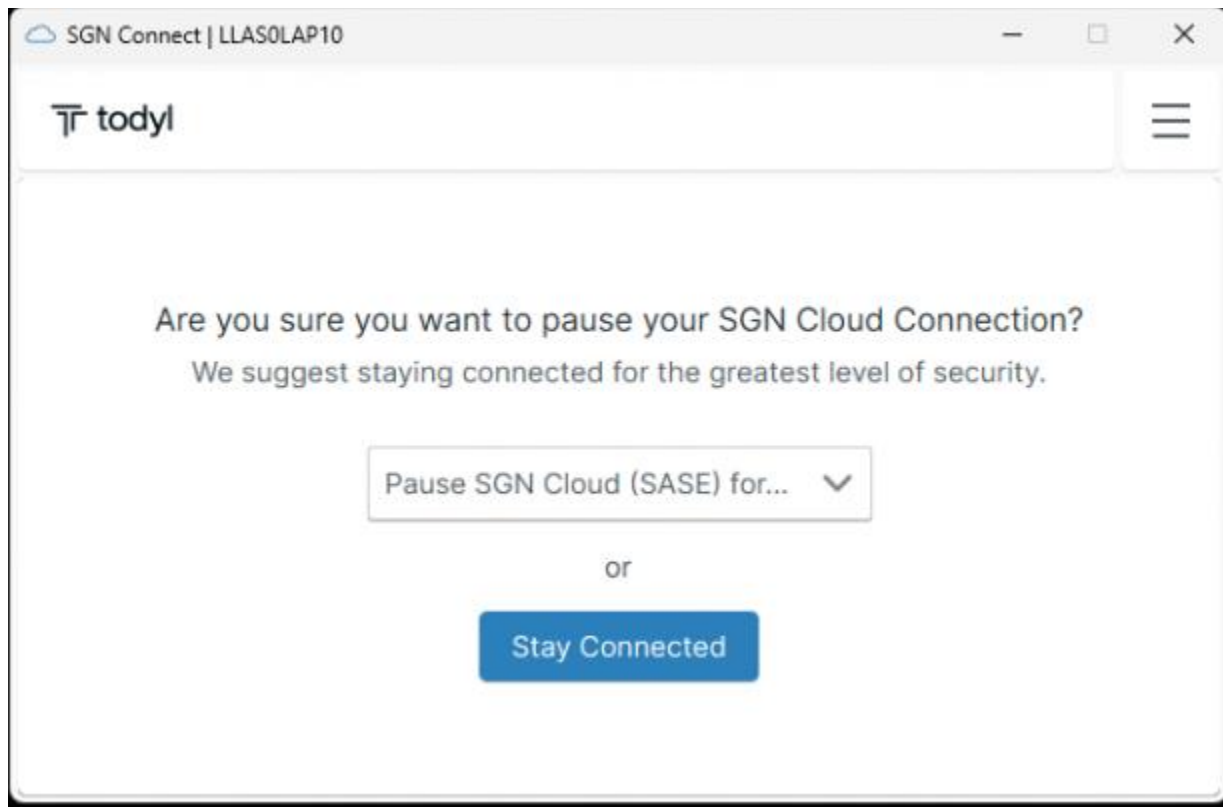

Todyl User Guide

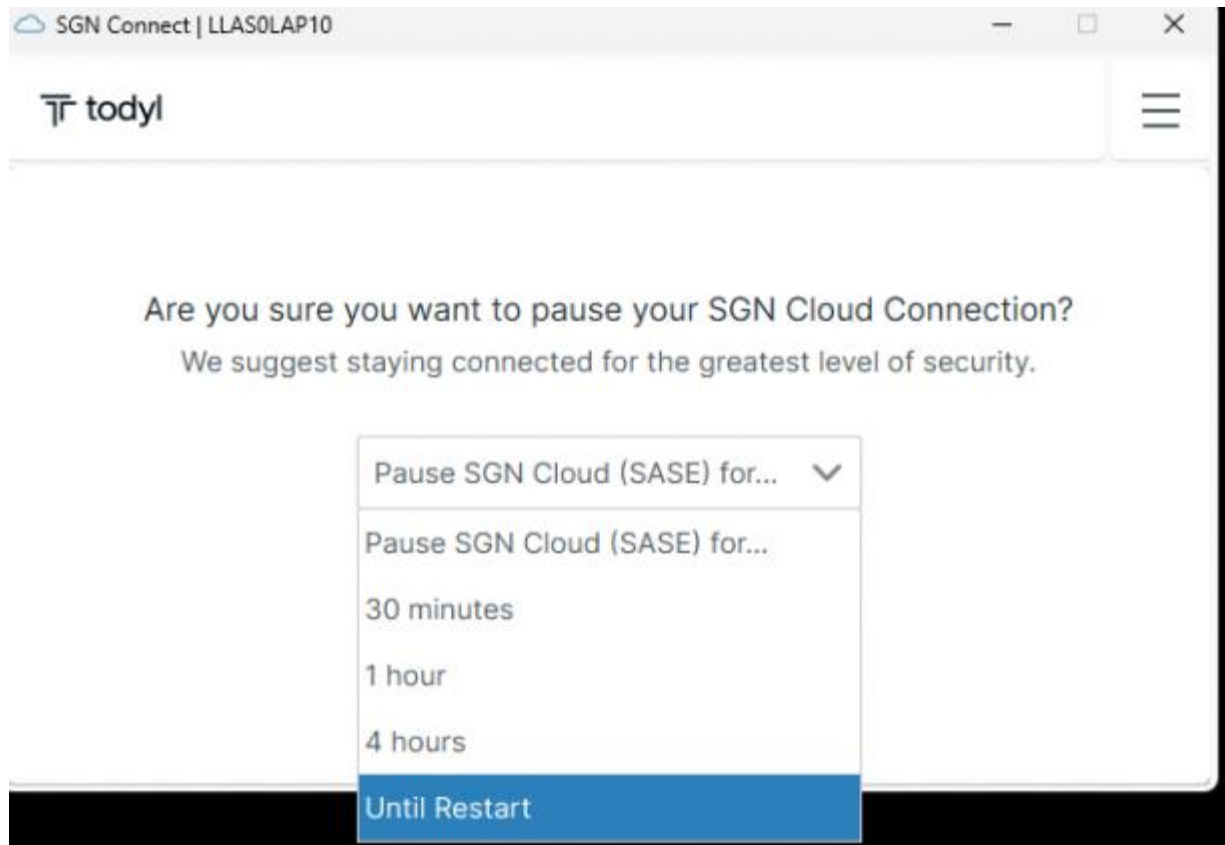

If you are properly connected to the SGN Cloud connection. You should see a Lock located in the middle of the Cloud and the GREEN switch ON. (As seen in the above image)

Pausing the SGN Cloud Connection:

To pause the SGN connection, click on the Green switch. This will give you the option to pause the SGN connection for a desired period of time. (As shown in the Below Image).

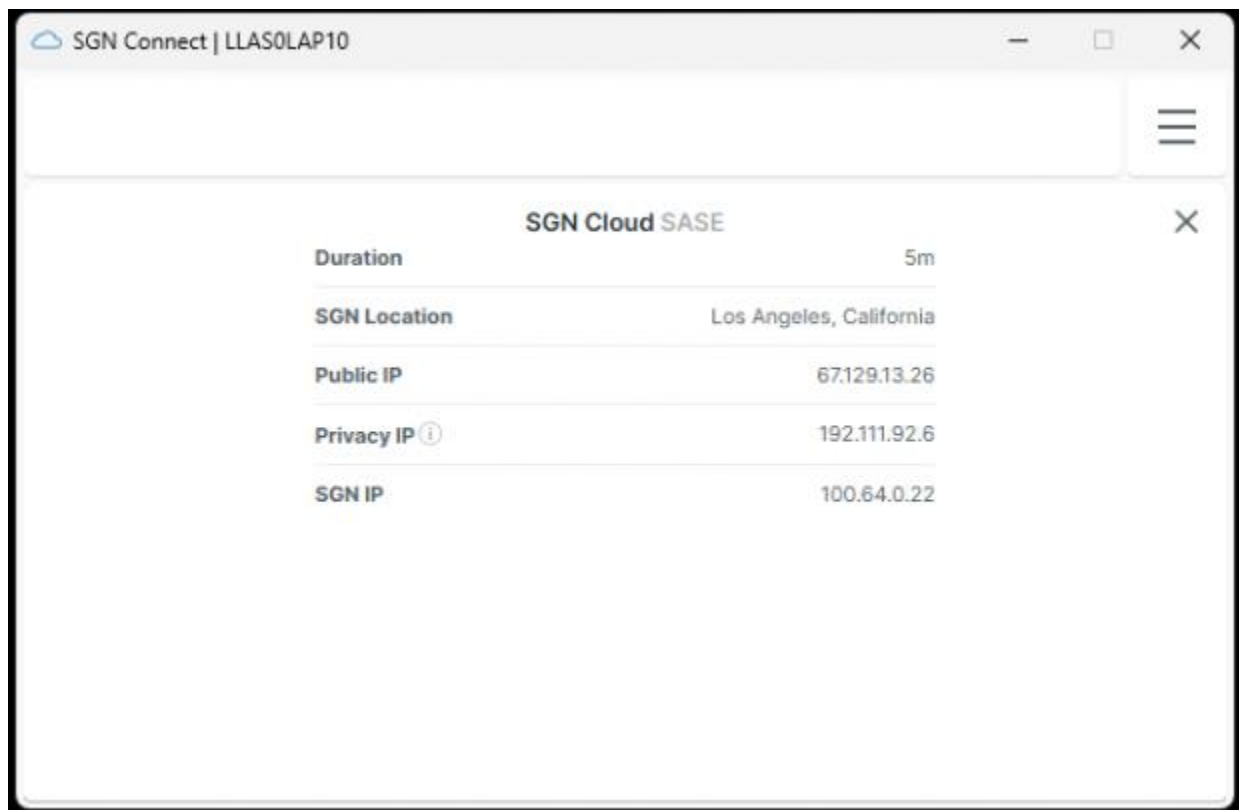

Todyl User Guide

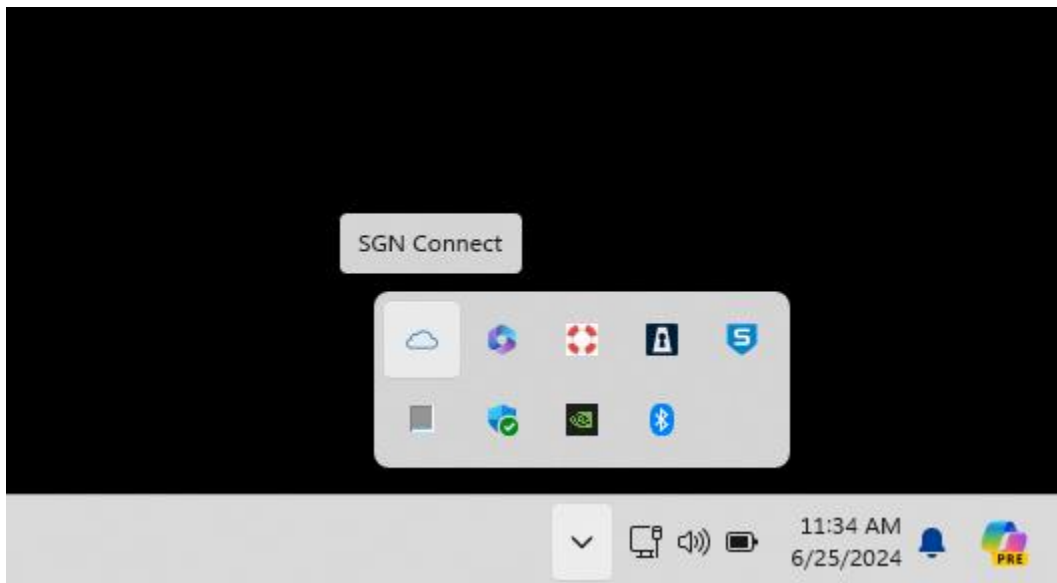

Locating SGN Cloud Connection Configuration:

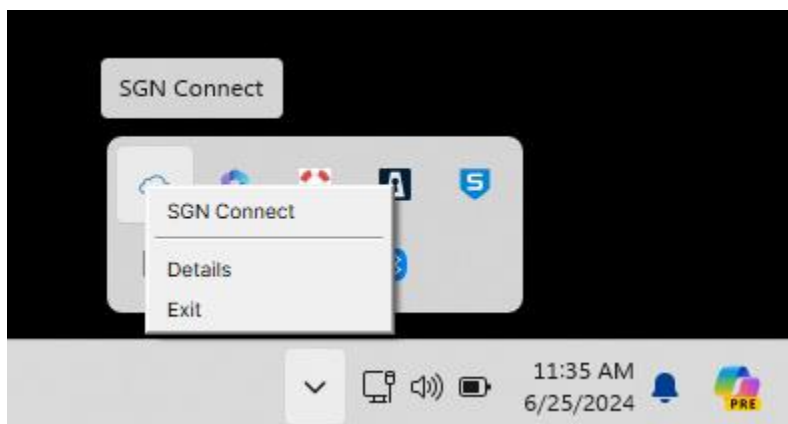

To locate the SGN Cloud Connection Configuration, 'click on the three lines located on the top right of the SGN application. This will allow you to view SGN location, Public IP, Private IP, and SGN IP addresses.

Locating the SGN connection on your computer taskbar's system tray. If you navigate to the system tray, you will find a CLOUD that represents the SGN connection.

In the system tray on your taskbar, 'Right Click' on the SGN Connect to view details about the SGN connection, connect directly to the SGN connection or exit the SGN connection.

Exiting the SGN connection:

Exiting the SGN connection will disconnect you from the VPN connection and protection of your device but this can be useful during troubleshooting instances or other matters.

